

AWARDS

Front Row's drama festival entry Durang-rang-rang was directed by four of the five actors (Gay Smith, Ian Bielenberg, Rebecca Taylor and Julie Bray) as well as with Robert Allen, who provided directorial overview. Ray Turner also acted in this play. Overall, the play won nine awards in 4 festivals – a great effort by all concerned.

Yarrageh Drama Festival (Sandgate)

- ✦ Best Play
- ✦ Best Director

Beenleigh Drama Festival

- ✦ Best Actor (Ian Bielenberg)
- ✦ Best Director
- ✦ Second overall

Brisbane Arts Drama Festival

- ✦ Adjudicator's award for Acting – Julie Bray

Norfolk Island Drama Festival

- ✦ Best Actor – Ian Bielenberg
- ✦ Third in the Best Actor category – Ray Turner
- ✦ Adjudicator's Award for Acting – Gay Smith

---

At the Association of Community Theatre annual dinner dance on 3 May 2008 at Tattersalls, Front Row Theatre won three awards and 2 highly commended out of the five possible categories. We won:

- 🌐 Best Poster (Shakespeare's Girly Bits) – special congratulations to designer Paul Hannah;
- 🌐 Best Set (Absent Friends) – special congratulations to designer Robert Allen; and
- 🌐 Best Costumes – special congratulations to designer, Anne Lyons.

We were highly commended for the program for Spider's Web and the publicity for Inconvenient People.

Extra special thanks must go to Robert Allen who designed the cover for our entries which gave them a very special look. We will display the entries and awards at the upcoming performances of Lipstick Dreams. Thanks to all who helped us enter, especially Robert, Anne and Paul.